

2007 Bell Bargaining

Bulletin # 9

December 11, 2007

To: Bell Local Officers

Sisters and Brothers:

Today the Company informed the bargaining committee that they are applying for Conciliation.

Under the Canada Labour Code, the Minister of Labour now has fifteen days to appoint a conciliation officer.

We anticipate that, based on the time of year, conciliation meetings will be scheduled early in 2008.

We will communicate again when the details are confirmed.

We wish you all a safe and happy holiday season and a prosperous 2008.

In Solidarity,

Richard Chaumont, National Representative
