

November 16, 2017

Acting in solidarity with each other – here and around the globe – makes a difference in our own lives and that of others. Find out more about what you can do to be a change-maker.

 WHAT'S HOT

Paid leave for domestic violence survivors becomes part of Ontario's new labour bill, after years of pressure.

READ MORE

 TAKE ACTION

Transgender Day of Remembrance is November 20. Transgender rights are human rights. Find out what locals can do to act in solidarity.

READ MORE

N.S. Federation of Labour brings unions together against a regressive government.

READ MORE

Unifor applauds Quebec government decision to follow federal lead and raise the QPP.

READ MORE

Resurrecting the TPP is the wrong decision.

READ MORE

Unifor meets B.C. ministers to urge continued pressure for softwood deal and the Container Truck Act.

READ MORE

Unifor raises areas of concern in the WorkSafe N.B. Review.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Youth services workers picket to press for a fair first contract.

READ MORE

Members at Dresden and Point Edward Casinos have ratified new three-year contracts with Gateway Casinos & Entertainment.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

During the Syrian refugee crisis, Unifor and the Social Justice Fund provided crucial aid to refugees in Jordan and here in Canada. Hear the stories:

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Did you know you can contribute to international social justice movements, right from the bargaining table? Check out Social Justice Fund – model bargaining language (p. 9)

READ MORE

Unifor

205 Placer Court, Toronto ON M2H 3H9

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org