

April 5, 2018

A progressive union is led by its members and Unifor members are challenging provincial cabinet members, activating change in their community, and securing improved contracts in their workplace.

 WHAT'S HOT

Let's welcome the 1,600 workers across the country, from a range of sectors, who've become Unifor members since January.

READ MORE

 TAKE ACTION

On Tuesday, April 10, mark Equal Pay Day and take action because widespread gender wage discrimination is unacceptable.

READ MORE

Friday, April 20

Hamilton

5:30-8:00 p.m.

Sheraton Hamilton Hotel,
116 King Street West

Special Guest: Maude Barlow

People's Trade Agenda Town Hall

People's Trade town halls are happening across the country this year and we're kicking it off this month in Hamilton.

READ MORE

There's much to applaud in the Quebec budget, like investments in jobs and infrastructure, but there's room for growth.

READ MORE

We need to update our electoral system in British Columbia and Unifor is joining the campaign to make it happen.

READ MORE

Ontario union locals are now protected against a loss of autonomy imposed by a parent trade union without just cause.

READ MORE

Nova Scotia's new domestic violence leave law is a step forward, but it should be paid leave, said Unifor.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Aerospace workers locked out of their workplace for 15 months confronted cabinet ministers, urging support and action.

READ MORE

Caesars Windsor casino workers narrowly avoid a strike with a tentative agreement to raise wages and more.

READ MORE

Bus manufacturers in Winnipeg ratify new contract that secured a defined benefit pension plan, raised wages, and more.

READ MORE

Sault Ste. Marie paramedics receive employer's aggressive final bargaining proposal via email.

READ MORE

🔄 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Unifor members joined Ontario's activist over a weekend to celebrate labour reforms and brainstorm election strategies.

READ MORE

🔄 RESOURCES

Many Unifor members experience a variety of challenges. Let's make Unifor accessible for members with disabilities.

READ MORE

Unifor

205 Placer Court, Toronto ON M2H 3H9

Toll-free: 1-800-268-5763 | communications@unifor.org